

F. Discretion

SISA and its consultants are under an obligation of discretion on all matters concerning the activities of PLS Consult. Thus, SISA and its consultants shall not make any statements publicly or to media in Denmark or abroad regarding PLS Consult or its activities unless PLS Consult has given its written permission to do so. This obligation shall also apply after the termination of the contract with PLS Consult.

SISA may mention the specific activities of its experts in the project in presentation materials and references, as assistance provided as subcontractor to PLS Consult.

The consultants from SISA are furthermore obliged to refrain from participating in any political activities in the project country and the consultants' conduct both in connection with the work and otherwise must not cause offence to the population or to public opinion.

G. Force Majeure

In cases of force majeure, such as war, disturbances, riots, earthquake or similar conditions making it necessary for PLS Consult to cease work on the project, the present agreement may be terminated by PLS Consult with a notice of 30 days. In consequence thereof, the parties shall be released from further performance of the Agreement.

H. Termination

The agreement will terminate without further notice upon completion of the services.

In case of termination of the related contract no. 97-0316 between The Client and PLS Consult, this contract may be terminated by PLS Consult with 6 weeks of notice.
